

Instructional Spending 101

Shelbe Klebs

Education Policy Advisor

@ShelbeKlebs

Tosin Akintola

Education Communications Advisor

@ThirdWayEDU

Michelle Dimino

Education Senior Policy Advisor

@MichelleDimino

Tamara Hiler

Director of Education

@TamaraHiler

Michael Itzkowitz

Senior Fellow, Higher Education

@mikeitzkowitz

Nicole Siegel

Senior Education Communications Manager

@NSiegel_DC

Each year, nearly 20 million students enroll in our nation’s higher education system, sending tuition checks to the college or university of their choice. But where exactly does that money go? This video reveals that when you look under the hood, only a small fraction of tuition revenue actually goes toward student instruction. And those institutions still receive billions in federal funds annually.

TOPICS

HIGHER EDUCATION 375