While Congress stalls on DACA, Dreamers are already losing protections.

Nathan Kasai Policy Advisor 122 Dreamers lose protection every day Congress fails to enact a permanent fix for the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. Meaning every day, more and more young people are threatened with deportation and lose their ability to study and work in the only home they have ever known. This timeline shows the urgency for action safeguarding tens of thousands who are American in every way but legal recognition.

WHILE CONGRESS REFUSES TO FIX DACA		S ARE LOSIN ONS EVERY I
Since President Trump announced on September 5, 2017, he was terminating Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) protections, Congress has repeatedly failed to pass permanent protections for Dreamers. Every day Congress refuses to act, Dreamers are at risk of deportation and losing their ability to study and work in the only country they have ever called home. Congress should have acced months ago, and Dreamers cannot afford to wait any longer.
22,000 the number of Dreamers who will lose DACA protections
Sept. 5 Oct. 5	Dec. 8 Dec. 21	Jan. 22 Feb. 8 Fe	b. 15 Mar. 5
Trump Final day announces to renew DACA DACA termination 3,660 lost	Congress passes 2nd funding bill without DACA fix 1,586 more lost	Congress Congress passes 3rd must pass funding bill another without funding bill DACA fix 2,074 3,904 more lost	Trump Administration DACA termination date 2,196 more lost
An estimated 122 Dreamers lose DACA protections every day.	Congress passes 1st funding bill without DACA fix 7,808 more lost	Ist funding bill pass DACA fix bills without DACA fix bills 854 more lost 7,808 more lost

JPGs of Third Way's infographics are available on Flickr.

