

VIOLENT FELON? MENTALLY ILL? TERRORIST?

DON'T ASK, DON'T TELL

Armslist.com is the eHarmony of gun sales—just one of many websites linking private sellers of firearms with strangers who want to buy their guns. These sales effectively avoid federal laws requiring criminal background checks for gun purchasers, since they skirt the gun store altogether. Third Way surveyed Armslist.com to provide a state-specific snapshot of the availability of guns for sale through this virtual loophole.

Gun sale listings data source: Armslist.com, June/July 2013.

For more on this subject, read "The Virtual Loophole: A Survey of Online Gun Sales," by Jim Kessler and Sarah Trumble. Available at: <http://www.thirdway.org/publications/719>.
