

WHILE CONGRESS REFUSES TO FIX DACA,

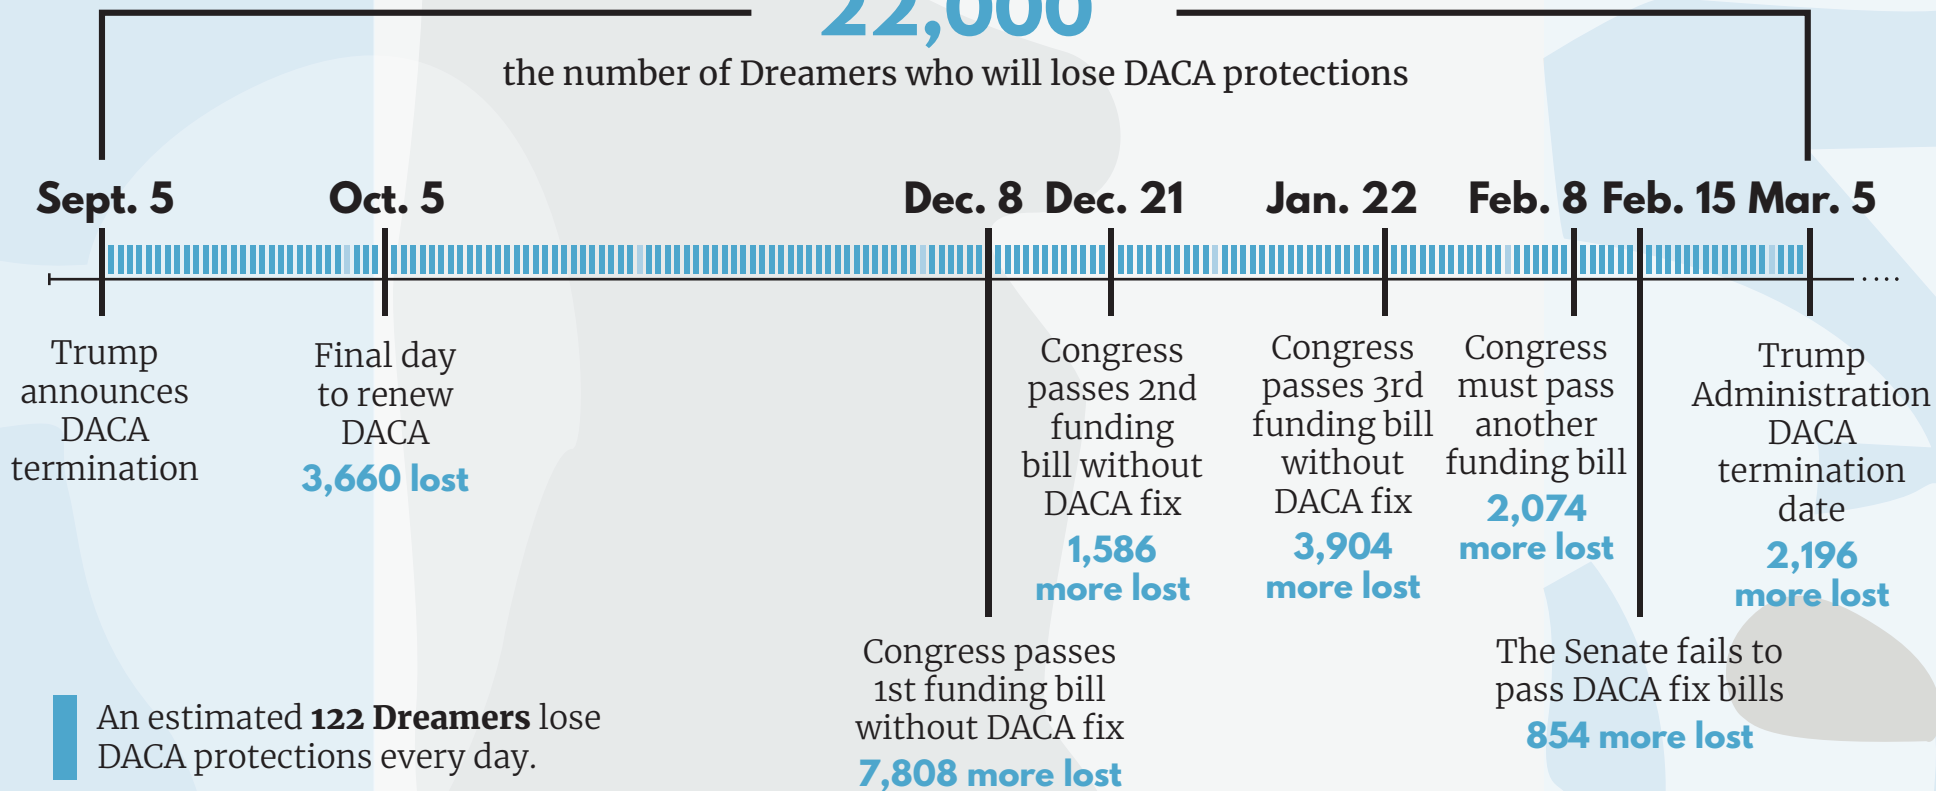

DREAMERS ARE LOSING PROTECTIONS EVERY DAY.

Since President Trump announced on September 5, 2017, he was terminating Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) protections, Congress has repeatedly failed to pass permanent protections for Dreamers. Every day Congress refuses to act, Dreamers are at risk of deportation and losing their ability to study and work in the only country they have ever called home. Congress should have acted months ago, and Dreamers cannot afford to wait any longer.

22,000

the number of Dreamers who will lose DACA protections

An estimated 122 Dreamers lose DACA protections every day.
